

MIXOLOGY – MIND MURMUR VOLUNTEER – 3 HOURS

Do you love bartending, wanna help mix exquisite hand-crafted cocktails? You don't need to be an expert bartender! We'll have recipes printed for you. Just come with a smile and readiness to share your inner wealth.

Mind Meditation Mixology Event Needs Bartenders!

We're having a special event Wednesday evening at the Mind Murmur pyramid.

After a brief group mediation, two PhD brain scientists will lead discussions on consciousness. Followed by DJs and custom-crafted cocktails. Think Elderflower-Pear-Rosemary Martinis and Fresh-Kicking-Ginger Moscow Mules.

Event date: Wednesday August 29

Shift time: 7pm – 10pm

What You'll Do:

- Help prepare ingredients at our camp before the event
- Mix cocktails at the pyramid during the event
- Muddle fresh ingredients in a cocktail shaker
- Help clean up afterwards
- Drink some truly delicious cocktails

What you COULD contribute:

This part is totally optional. If you're moved to help more, consider contributing good-quality alcohol. Please contact Dina at i@dinafisher.net to arrange. (we spent all our moola on the art, so could use help with the supplies 😊).
